Ribbon Cutting held for Bella's Bistro in Bensenville

Bensenville, IL – A Ribbon Cutting Ceremony held on Wednesday, March 7 celebrated the opening of Bella's Bistro Market, located at 471 West Irving Park Road in Bensenville.

This newly renovated space includes a wine bar, specialty market and video gaming. The menu offers a variety of items, including a build your own flatbread pizza and a wide selection of sandwiches.

Village officials and members of the Bensenville Chamber of Commerce all attended the event to welcome Bella's Bistro to Bensenville. Together, Village President Frank DeSimone and Business Owner Rocky Bhalla cut the red ribbon to celebrate this addition to the community. "Bella's Bistro provides a unique space for residents to come socialize," said Village President Frank DeSimone.
