Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony Held for Osiris Construction in Bensenville

Bensenville, IL – On Friday, July 29, 2022, a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held for Osiris Construction who recently relocated to a newly renovated facility located at 560 N. York Road in Bensenville.

Village President Frank DeSimone cut the ceremonial red ribbon while joined by Osiris Construction business partners Emil Gubernat and Sorin Tat. Also in attendance were members of the Bensenville Chamber of Commerce, Village staff, Village officials, and Osiris Construction team members and their families.

“There is no greater compliment for a business-friendly community like Bensenville than retaining growing businesses. It’s something we strive for in Bensenville. It shows us that businesses are happy with the services provided by the Village and that they value what Bensenville has to offer. Osiris Construction did a wonderful job bringing new life into this space and we wish them success as they continue to grow,” said Village President Frank DeSimone.

Chris Costea who started the business in 2005 owns Osiris Construction along with his business partners Emil Gubernat and Sorin Tat. Osiris Construction specializes in a variety of functions including project management, maintenance, new construction, and remodeling. Osiris handles both residential and industrial projects while spanning various vertical markets, including general office, retail, and restaurants.
